

“I feel that I’ve grown with the patients. I recognize their kids, and they know mine.” Leticia Romero, Receptionist

AltaMed’s strength comes from within.

Just like Leticia, Elizabeth and Jeanette, many of the professionals who work at AltaMed have come to play an important role in the lives of the families they serve.

“I love being able to help people that don’t speak English and making sure that they have a nice experience.”

- Jeanette Mendoza, Receptionist.

The satisfaction they get in working for the community reflects the professionalism and family-oriented environment of their workplace. AltaMed is a non-profit health care provider that has served Southern California for more than 40 years.
